Why study here

We're ranked in the top 100 globally in all the leading world university rankings, including QS, Times Higher Education, and the Academic Ranking of World Universities. We're Australia's most innovative University* and one of the top 10 most beautiful in the world.

As Australia's first university our reputation spans more than 160 years. We teach more than 60,000 bright minds, with 20,000 international students from more than 130 countries. We've taught 145 Olympians, 7 prime ministers, 2 Nobel laureates, 3 astronauts, 111 Rhodes scholars and 1 Pulitzer Prize winner.

The interdisciplinary nature of our nine faculties and schools allows us to offer the widest range of academic programs of any Australian university, giving you the flexibility to personalise your study abroad experience.

“Highly recommended to those who are keen to step out of their comfort zone, fly far away from friends and family and obtain the most rewarding experience of your life supported by high-quality education, breathtaking traveling destinations and new lifelong friends from everywhere in the world!”

Every Spring, the Sculptures by the Sea event attracts thousands of visitors to the coastline exhibit on the walk from Bondi to Coogee.

“I had the chance to meet some of the most inspiring and creative lecturers ever. Besides their outstanding standard of studies, the University offers unbelievable social life for students. You can attend numerous events each week and you won’t be able to cross the campus without bumping into new opportunities to enrich your experience. There’s no other place like the University of Sydney!”

Business student, Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary

Campus life

Discover why our student experience is voted best in Australia.

Campus life at the University of Sydney is a unique and unforgettable experience.

We're ranked the Best Student Experience* in Australia, boasting more than 200 student clubs and societies, 43 sports clubs, 4 live performance spaces, 2 fitness centres, 12 cafés, and 8 bars on campus.

Global Citizenship Award (GCA)

An extra-curricular program providing you with distinctive international and leadership opportunities to prepare you for your future as a global citizen.

Sydney University Global Exchange Society

A society made for students by students that share a passion for global education and connecting members with interests in study abroad, travel, culture and the ultimate student lifestyle. From social events to travel getaways, there are so many fun opportunities to meet others just like you!

– facebook.com/SUGExSoc/

Sport and fitness

Sydney Uni Sport and Fitness offers a huge range of facilities, programs and campus events to keep you healthy and active. You can get involved in athletics, swimming, tennis, golf, hockey, soccer, rugby union, rowing, scuba diving, skiing and more. Whether you want to play at the competitive level or just socially, there's an option for you.

Social program

Once you arrive at the University of Sydney, the Sydney Abroad team are here to answer your questions and welcome you to our campus community. We offer a wide range of services to help you make the most of your time here and develop skills and strategies to enjoy university life to the fullest. Here are just a few of the ways we can support your health, welfare and academic life.

Orientation

Orientation is an action-packed opportunity to dive into the social and academic experiences of campus life. It's a great time to make friends, attend official welcome events, and enjoy a huge and varied program of entertainment. Sydney Abroad orientation starts with Meet and Greet sessions two weeks prior to semester. The official welcome and enrolment advising events take place during the week prior to beginning the semester.

– sydney.edu.au/orientation

Mates Abroad mentoring program

Each semester, hundreds of study abroad students are paired with likeminded, enthusiastic local student mentors to ease their transition into Sydney life, create new friendships, and share exciting adventures in Australia together. Every study abroad student is invited to opt-in to this program via email at the beginning of their semester abroad.

Social program

Coordinating with the Global Exchange Society, we run social events such as a Sydney harbour cruise, breakfast with koalas, Aussie football game, surf camp, city tours and tons of BBQs. The USU also runs the three-day O-Week Festival during Orientation Week in February before Semester 1 (the largest event of its kind in Australia), and a smaller event in August for Semester 2.

Our researchers and teachers

The passion and brilliance of our academics continues to ensure we are one of the world's top research universities.

As a member of Australia's prestigious Group of Eight network, we are among the best in the world. You'll have the opportunity to learn from our inspiring academics who pursue research excellence with the latest innovative technology. It is due to the outstanding calibre of their work that we continue to rank among the top teaching and research universities in the world. Our teachers are leaders in their field and offer an innovative curriculum that is consistently fuelled by new research.

What sets the University of Sydney apart?

Exceptional facilities, an innovative edge and the drive to challenge traditional ways of thinking. Our students have the opportunity to be part of this: contributing to research that pushes the boundaries and makes a meaningful, real-world impact.

The award-winning Ladybird in action on a beetroot farm in Cowra. Created by robotics expert Professor Salah Sukkarieh.

“The University of Sydney is an amazing university with great diversity in students, class opportunities, and social experiences. Even though I was 10,000 miles from home I felt at home right away. The professors I had were all very passionate about their subjects, and I learned a lot in my classes. Australia is such an amazing country and I was able to learn so much about it and see a lot! The people I met will be lifelong friends. I am already looking forward to going back to Sydney.”

Sally

George Washington University, USA

“I had a desire to see my work applied to the benefit of humanity. The fact that new materials play a major role in driving new technologies led me to choose materials research.”

Professor Marcela Bilek
Materials scientist, Faculty of Science

“I get to apply my research skills in collaborative projects with colleagues from fields including public health, agriculture, geography, cultural studies, urban planning and business. We come from distinct disciplines but all have a common goal – to improve peoples’ access to healthy, affordable food.”

Dr Alanna Mann
Media and political communications researcher,
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

“We help students find their passion by giving them opportunities to experiment. This is important because tomorrow’s business leaders will be defined by their ability to bring the arts and the natural sciences into harmony by, for example, designing products that are not only technically sophisticated but also intuitive and fun.”

Dr Eric Knight
Innovation and management teacher,
The University of Sydney Business School

Our subject areas

We offer the widest range of academic programs of any university in Australia.

Our teachers, researchers and leading thinkers are paving the way for solutions to complex global issues impacting upon our health, environment, technology and culture. You can have great confidence in your study abroad at Sydney.

How to search for a unit of study

We have more than 2500 units of study available to Study Abroad and Exchange students.

We've made the search easier for you by creating units of study lists to help you find suitable subjects. From discipline specific to thematic lists, you can easily navigate our thousands of units of study.

Step 1

You can use our unit tools to find your desired options:

– sydney.edu.au/study-abroad-units

Step 2

Select your preferred list: Master, Thematic or Department. This will take you to a current unit list.

Step 3

Where a unit name grabs your interest, follow the link provided for more information. The link will take you to the unit's course page.

Costs listed on unit course pages only apply to international students completing their full degree at Sydney

“It’s literally the best decision I’ve ever made in my life. Having the opportunity to attend this university, that offers a wide range of units of study and also meeting new people from all over the world definitely changes your life.”

Hector
Tecnológico de Monterrey, Mexico

Internships

Combining your study abroad experience with an international internship can help you stand out in a competitive job market.

Complement your academic study with relevant industry or research experience. Interns complete a minimum 120 hours in an industry or research placement with one of our many partners or academics. The Internship unit of study is worth 6 credit points, and taken alongside your other units of study.

– sydney.edu.au/sydney-abroad-intern

There are three intakes:

Semester 1	March–June (13 weeks)
-------------------	-----------------------

Short Term	May–July (6 weeks)
-------------------	--------------------

Semester 2	July–November (13 weeks)
-------------------	--------------------------

Parallel to your work placement are 4 hours of professional development workshops, academic readings and a range of assessments including a final project report.

We help facilitate the process for our students to enter their chosen profession. Interns have the chance to develop familiarity with the Australian workplace culture while applying their academic learning in real workplace situations. They also enhance their communication, cross-cultural and interpersonal skills, and gain a competitive advantage in the graduate employment market by developing global connections.

“When reflecting on whether or not I think it was worth it to do the internship while here in Sydney, I believe I made the 100% correct decision. Although it did take away some of my time at the beach and it was a lot of work. It really did benefit me more than any other class would have at Uni. I would definitely recommend to anyone to do an internship when coming to Sydney.”

Logan

Accounting and Finance Intern, USA

Our internship areas

Our host partners offer placements in the following roles and industries. This list is non-exhaustive and we can accommodate other placement interests as required.

- Accounting, Economics and Finance
- Architecture and Urban Planning
- Business and Management
- Charity, Conservation and Social Enterprise
- Education
- Engineering, Information and Communication Technologies
- Events, Public Relations, Marketing and Social Media
- Government, Public Sector and Law
- Media and Communications
- Retail and Fashion
- Science and Research
- Sport and Fitness.

Eligibility

- Be a Study Abroad applicant and satisfy all entry requirements
- Have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale, or an average of 'C' or better on the ECTS grading scale
- Have completed at least 1 year of university study

How to apply

Step 1: In your Study Abroad course application, select 'Yes' to indicate your Internship interest

Step 2: You should also list ARTS2600 in your application's unit of study list.

Placement is competitive and based on key performance indicators such as GPA, prior academic studies and goals, as well as the interests of the applicant and host. Though every effort is made to place all eligible applicants, placement is competitive and not guaranteed.

Programs

We have many options available for both undergraduate and postgraduate students wishing to study at Sydney. Students coming for semesters 1 or 2 need to enrol in a full time credit load of 24 credit points.

Study Abroad

Every year, we welcome hundreds of students who participate in one of our study abroad programs. Some come for our academic reputation and wide range of courses, while others wish to experience our vibrant student life bolstered by our guaranteed accommodation and unique Internship program. Students can come for 1 or 2 semesters and tuition fees apply.

Exchange

We have exchange programs with more than 250 partner universities in over 40 countries. If you're enrolled at one of our international partner universities, you may be eligible to apply for exchange. When you come as an exchange student, your tuition fees are paid to your home university while you study at Sydney.

If your home university has a partnership with us, you first need to apply to your home university's international exchange program.

You will need to be nominated by your home university before applying to the University of Sydney. Once you receive your home university nomination, we welcome you to follow the steps on how to apply.

Short term

Each unit of study is taught in an intensive format while maintaining credit point values and academic integrity. Most unit of study options are taught alongside full-degree students and provide hands-on experiential learning in an Australian cultural context. Students can choose either 1 or 2 units of study, one of which can be our credit-bearing Internship.

Short Term fees*

1 unit of study $3125 AUD

2 units of study $6250 AUD

*Indicative rate for 2018, official rates will be published online mid 2017.

Gap and first year students

For those just finishing secondary school or in their first year of university study, this program is an excellent way to earn credit at the University of Sydney. With over 170 semester-long units of study with no pre-requisites or assumed knowledge, you're spoilt for choice. The flat rate study abroad semester-long program tuition fees apply. Gap and first year applicants will be assessed on their secondary qualification and need to meet our English entry requirements.

“Meeting people from all around the world in a beautiful country and city. The best class I took was one of the electives (Outdoor Education) and it was an amazing experience! Being able to go on a field trip to the Royal National Park and camp in the Blue Mountains for a class was an opportunity I’ve never had before and I was actually sad when the class was over. Our instructor was also an incredibly kind and passionate teacher, which made the experience even better.”

How to apply

Step 1: Check if your home university has a relationship with the University of Sydney

If they do, you need to contact your home university. They will then contact us with their nomination.

– sydney-au-sa.terradotta.com

Step 2: Search Study Abroad or Exchange, and find your course

Your course will differ depending upon your nomination, program (Study Abroad or Exchange), level of study (undergraduate or postgraduate), and duration (one or two semesters).

– sydney.edu.au/courses

Step 3: Access your online application

Apply now to start your application. You can save and return to it later.

Step 4: Submit your application

You need to include:

- Your current transcript
- Evidence you have met our English entry requirements
- A copy of your passport

Step 5: Your offer letter

You will receive your offer letter via email.

Step 6: Accept your offer, and if applicable, pay your tuition and OSHC

Log in to your Sydney Student and respond to your offer. If applicable, you need to pay your tuition, deposit and/or overseas student health cover (OSHC).

Step 7: Receive your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE)

You need your CoE for your visa application.

Step 8: Confirm your visa and start planning your travel to Sydney!

Ensure you arrive before Orientation.

Eligibility

Before you apply, please make sure that you understand our eligibility criteria.

- Nomination from your home university if they are a exchange partner of the University of Sydney
- You need to have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 point scale, or an average grade of 'C' or better on the European ECTS grading scale (or equivalent).
- Meet the English entry requirements

English entry requirements

If English is not your first language, you will need to demonstrate English proficiency by meeting the minimum score of one of the English language test methods below:

- IELTS – overall score of 6.5, with a minimum 6.0 in reading, listening, speaking and writing
- TOEFL iBT – overall score of 85, with a writing minimum of 19 and reading, listening and speaking minimum of 17
- TOEFL PBT – overall score of 565 with a writing minimum of 4.5
- Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) – overall score of 58, with a borderline section minimum

- Cambridge English: Proficiency (CPE) – overall score of 45
- Cambridge English Scale (from 2015) – overall score of 176, with 176 section minimum
- Pearsons Test of English (PTE) academic test – overall score of 61, with a 54 section minimum.

If you can provide evidence that you've completed a full-time year of study in an English-speaking country, or at a university where the language of instruction is English, this may be sufficient to demonstrate proficiency.

- sydney.edu.au/study/english-reqs

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

Health insurance is compulsory for most international students who are studying in Australia.

It is a condition of your student visa that you maintain Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the duration of your studies. This cover needs to be arranged before you can apply for your student visa. The University's preferred OSHC provider is Allianz Global Assist and if you indicate that you'd like us to arrange your OSHC then we will arrange the necessary type and length of cover. This is arranged once you have paid for your OSHC cover.

- Cost: $330 for 6 months (2017 rate)

If you'd like to arrange your OSHC cover, immigration have approved providers.

Norwegian, Belgian and Swedish students are exempt from OSHC as a result of special inter-governmental arrangements.

Under 18?

The University welcomes applications from international students under 18 and is guided by requirements set out in the ESOS Framework.

Accommodation

Choosing where to live will be one of the biggest decisions you'll make after deciding to study in Australia. We provide peace of mind in finding a place to live by offering our students guaranteed accommodation at Urbanest, a student accommodation complex within a 15 minute walk to campus and located on the doorstep of downtown Sydney.

We have negotiated a special 20-week contract rate and length for Study Abroad and Exchange students. Contracts start the week before Orientation and finish the week after the final exam period, meaning you don't pay for several additional weeks they wouldn't use.

"I lived at the Urbanest on Cleveland Street and I was very pleased with the quality of housing. I was also happy to find that a majority (if not, all) of the residents were University of Sydney students, which helped me to meet new people and make friends during my semester here."

Jennifer
Cornell University, USA

Live on campus

The University has eight residential colleges on the Camperdown/Darlington Campus, including International House, a residential community of global scholars. The University also offers furnished rooms in shared or self-contained apartments and houses, with multiple room types available, usually located within walking distance of the Camperdown/Darlington, Cumberland and Camden campuses.

Live off campus

More than 90 percent of our students live off campus, and the University's Student Accommodation Services can also help you find accommodation nearby. Our website can also give you helpful advice on where to live, costs, and other accommodation options. For more information visit:

– sydney.edu.au/accommodation

Temporary arrival accommodation If you have not secured guaranteed housing before you move to Sydney, we recommend that you book a temporary place to stay. Once you have arrived and are settled into your temporary accommodation, you can then look around for longer-term accommodation.

Student support services

Enrolment support and advice

It can take a little time to adjust to a new academic system. Our advisers provide enrolment support and advice about which of your preferred units of study are approved. Advisers also guide you through the enrolment process prior to arrival and work with you to ensure your enrolment is finalised within the first two weeks of semester.

Student services

Academic support (study skills workshops, free tutorials, group study sessions and bridging courses in areas such as grammar, mathematics and science).

- Disability services
- Health and wellbeing support (doctors, dentists, a pharmacy, physiotherapists, an optometrist, counsellors, psychologists and chaplains – all on campus)
- Careers centre
- sydney.edu.au/student-services

Peer Advisers

Peer Advisers are available at the Student Centre, Monday–Friday 9am–5pm for any Study Abroad and Exchange needs that you may have.

“I had the opportunity to meet a lot of people from all around the world, and many local students. The classes were challenging but they still gave time to enjoy my short time in Australia. I came from the other side of the world and definitely had the best time of my life, and I would absolutely recommend this opportunity to everybody. Australia is an awesome country with a lot of opportunities, and Sydney Uni was the best way for me to know it.”
